

Modern Slavery Act 2015

Modern slavery and human trafficking statement

Introduction from the founder

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. It takes various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.

Quintus of Cambridge is committed to improving our practices to combat slavery and human trafficking.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Quintus of Cambridge's slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending April 2020.
